Press Release

East Cleveland Public Library Announces Concert June 23rd 4pm.

The East Cleveland Public Library is proud to present Forecast.

Forecast is a contemporary Jazz band, native to Cleveland. The band performs a musical blend of instrumental jazz, funk, rock, reggae and pop. Comprised of vibist Lem Adams, saxophonist Riley Richard, keyboardist Alphonso McDuffie, bassist Gray Stevenson, and drummer John Turner.

In addition to their regular performance dates, the band has opened for Earl Klugh, The Crusaders, Stanley Turrentine, Roy Ayers, Angie Bofill, and many others. Awards received include the 1985 and 1986 Michelob Jazz Search, Best Jazz Fusion Band from the 1993 Midwest Urban Music Awards, and Best Contemporary Jazz Band from Scene magazine in 1999. Forecast has also performed as the official house band of the Cleveland Cavaliers at the Gund Arena for the 2001-02 Season.

The Library is excited to hold this concert in the Greg L. Reese Performing Arts Center, Sunday June 23rd at 4 pm. While seating is limited, admission is free, doors open at 3pm so make sure to arrive early.
