PERSONAL BELONGINGS

The Library is not responsible for lost or stolen items. It is recommended that patrons do not leave personal belongings unattended.

EMERGENCIES

In the event of an emergency, patrons shall comply with instructions from Library personnel. It is illegal to carry weapons of any kind, either concealed or in plain view, in the building unless the person in possession of the weapon is a law enforcement officer.

VIOLATIONS

The Board of Trustees authorizes the Director, other Library staff, and Library security officers to enforce this Patron Code of Conduct consistent with this policy.

The rules of public behavior will be prominently posted in the Library and will be made available electronically, and patrons who violate this Code of Conduct will be given notice of their violation. A violation may result in a patron’s expulsion from the Library, restriction from the Library, suspension of Library privileges, and/or arrest and criminal prosecution or other legal action, as appropriate. When necessary the Library will work with law enforcement authorities to prosecute actions for criminal behavior against the Library, its patrons, and staff. Although the Library reserves the right to require anyone violating the Code of Conduct to leave Library property, the Library will generally follow these steps when a violation occurs:

1) Library staff and/or security officers will verbally bring to an individual’s attention any act or omission that violates this Patron Code of Conduct or related Library policies and ask the individual to change his or her behavior to conform to the rules.

2) If such change is not evident or forthcoming, Library staff and/or security officers will direct the individual violating this Patron Code of Conduct or related Library policies to leave Library property (which includes both the building and the premises). In some situations, a violation may result in an individual being directed to leave Library property (second level) without the patron having been given a verbal warning under first level consequences, including, for example, situations when a patron’s presence poses a continuing danger to persons or property or an ongoing threat of disruption (for example, when engaging in a physical fight, etc.), or based on the severity or frequency of the violation. (Individuals will have the opportunity to request a review of this decision with the Director of the Library or his/her designee, see Appeal Process.)

3) Failure to leave Library property (which includes both the building and the premises) when directed may result in intervention by the police and/or security officers and a possible charge of criminal trespass per Section 2911.21 of the Ohio Revised Code.

4) Individuals who violate this Code of Conduct may be restricted from the Library for varying periods of time, depending on the severity or frequency of the violation. If restricted for more than one day, the Library will give written notice of the violation and restriction, either in person at the time of violation or by mail if possible. With respect to patron under age 18, any such notice of restriction will be sent to the patron under 18 parent or guardian. Individuals who have been so restricted will be required to meet and discuss the violation with the Director before being readmitted, with patron under 18 being required to bring a parent or guardian to any such conference.

The Director, other Library staff, and/or security officers may, in their discretion, call the police for assistance as needed. The Library reserves the right to enforce this Code of Conduct consistent with safety, health, legal, and other relevant considerations, and the Library will comply with all applicable laws.

In addition, patrons must comply with all federal, state, and local laws. Suspected illegal activity will be reported to the police. Violations of law may result in a patron being expelled from the Library, arrested, prosecuted, and/or other legal action, as appropriate.

APPEAL PROCESS

A patron who has been expelled or restricted from the Library, or whose Library privileges have been suspended, will have the right to a review of this decision by a Panel of three, consisting of the Director of the Library and his/her designees. To schedule a review, a patron should contact Administration at (216) 541-1428 (x6252) or in writing at 14101 Euclid Avenue, East Cleveland, OH 44112 within five weekdays from the date of the notice of restriction or other action and request a meeting to discuss the restriction or other action. The Panel will schedule a meeting in order to review the restriction or other action. Patrons under 18 who have requested a review are required to bring a parent or guardian to the meeting with the Panel. Pending the review/appeal process, a restriction or other Library action will remain in effect.

After this review, a patron may appeal the decision of the Panel to the Board of Trustees. To appeal the decision, a patron must submit a written statement, within five weekdays from the date of the decision, a written statement explaining why the decision of the Panel should be overturned, with any supporting documentation or evidence to be considered. This appeal must be submitted via mail to the Board of Trustees at 14101 Euclid Avenue, East Cleveland, OH 44112. The Board of Trustees will promptly schedule and resolve the appeal.
